THE RULE OF HOSPITALITY.

True hospitality is a thing that touches the heart and never goes beyond the circle of general impulses. Entertainment with the truly hospitable man means more than the mere feeding of the body; it means an interchange of soul gifts. Still it should have its laws, as all things good must have laws to govern them.

The obligation to be hospitable is a sacred one, emphasized by every moral code known to the world, and a practical outcome of the second great commandment.

There should never be a guest in the house whose presence requires any considerable change in the domestic economy.

However much the circumstances of business or mutual interests may demand in entertaining a stranger, he should never be taken into the family circle unless he is known to be wholly worthy of a place in that sanctum sanctorum of a social life; but when once a man is admitted to the home fireside he should be treated as if the place had been his always.

The fact of an invitation gives neither host nor guest the right to be master of the other's time, and does not require even a temporary sacrifice of one's entire individuality or pursuits.

A man should never be so much himself as when he entertains a friend.

To stay at a friend's house beyond the time for which one is invited is to perpetrate a social robbery.

To abide uninvited to a friend's home is as much a misdemeanor as borrowing his coat without his permission. It is debasing the coin of friendship to mere dross when a man attempts to make it pay his hotel bills.

The fact of two men having the same occupation and interests in life gives to neither a social right to the other's bed and board. A traveling minister has no more right to go uninvited to a fellow-preacher's house than a traveling shopkeeper or shoemaker has to go uninvited to the house of his fellow-craftsman. Men are ordained to the ministry as preachers, teachers and pastors, and not as private hotel-keepers.

They who go into the country in summer as uninvited guests of their farmer friends should be rated as social brigands and treated accordingly.

These few social maxims are by no means to be taken as a complete code of laws. Others quite as important will spring up out of the personal experience of every reader of this article, and the justice and equity of all may be tested by that infallible standard of society—the Golden Rule. There can be no true hospitality that in practice is a violation of this rule; and you may safely rest assured that you have given the fullest and most perfect measure of entertainment to your neighbor if you have done exactly as you would be done by.—William M. F. Round, in Sunday Afternoon.

HUMOROUS.

Beaconsfield's going about London with the strut of a Turkey gobbler.

Russian names are imposing but cannot be justly called pronounced successes.

Wonder why it never occurred to Moody and Sankey to devote a few years to the Niagara Falls hackmen?

The Keokuk Constitution suggests to the Weather Clerk that a motion to adjourn is always in order.

The temperance people ought to bring their batteries to bear against the Judiciary. A full Bench is no uncommon sight.

Don't put on unlimited frills, Beaconsfield. Goldwin Smith declares that the Berlin Congress was a "burglarious conclave."

"Can love die?" inquires Mary E. Nealy in a recently published poem. It cannot, though it gets dreadfully adjourned occasionally.

"Never say die." Of course not. 'Tis just as easy and much more elegant to remark that the vital spark has absented itself.

Washington Post: We care nothing for a "Thomas Concert." We can hear one on the back woodshed any night without paying a cent.

"A schooner of beer for five cents" is translated by a French paper so as to read, "In America you can get a boat full of beer for five cents."

The Fulton Times says that a patch on a boy's trousers is "something new under the son." True, and it shows that the youngster wasn't reared in affluence.

Lady Gladys Herbert, one of the prettiest women in London, is likewise one of the tallest, being six feet in height. A case of what's its name sweetness long drawn out.

Mary Clemmer writes that when Vinnie Ream buttonholes a man she throws back her head, spreads out her face beneath his, and begins to sob. The man feels himself a stucco image on the spot.

It is time that the old favorite summer conundrum had its annual airing—what's the difference between Saratoga and Newport? At the latter you go into the water, at the former the water goes into you.

The Baltimore Bulletin records the fact that Mrs. McCormick, of the Monumental City, has just given birth to five healthy children. We thought that nothing would beat four of a kind, but it seems we were mistaken.

"Why is it, my dear sir," said Waffles' landlady to him the other day, "that you newspaper men never get rich?" "We do not know," was his reply, "except it is that dollars and sense do not always travel together."

The greatest benefactor of the female sex on this continent, according to the Chicago Times, is Judge Grant, of Davenport, Iowa. He has adopted seventeen girls, "raised them, and married most of them off with generous endowments."

"So you are going to keep a school," said a young lady to an old maiden aunt. "Well, for my part, sooner than that I would marry a widower with 9 children." "I would prefer that myself; but where is the widower?"

THE EMBARASSMENTS OF THE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT.

The embarassments that beset the BEACONSFIELD Government are of a very serious character. Some of them arise from the foreign policy of the Government, some were inherited from the GLADSTONE administration and others—as the result of natural causes. If Parliament were now dissolved and an appeal made to the people, probably the elections would go against the Conservatives. But it does not appear to be likely that Lord BEACONSFIELD will take a step that would in all probability insure the return of Mr. GLADSTONE to power if the Liberals could be brought to combine on him. But the attacks of Mr. GLADSTONE upon the policy of the Government, and especially in respect to its course in the Russo-Turkish war and in Afghanistan, continue incessantly, and so far as the Afghan war is concerned, his predictions have been verified. The massacre of the British embassy at Cabul makes a vigorous renewal of the war a matter of necessity. From all accounts Gen. ROBERTS will not have as much difficulty reaching Cabul as in leavingit afterwards. To attempt to conquer and hold Afghanistan would require a force of men and an expenditure of money that would bankrupt the Indian treasury and tax heavily the resources of the Imperial Government. The trouble is to know what to do with such a fierce, treacherous, warlike people. It is evident, too, that implicit confidence is not placed in the Ameer, in spite of his protestations of innocence in respect to the Cabul massacre. But in the new expedition no news paper correspondents are to be allowed unless they are officers serving with the force. Some of them have made unscrupulous use of their opportunities, have written their letters in the spirit of political partisans, and when expeditions have been planned requiring secresy and rapidity of execution for success, "have telegraphed every detail of the preparations all over the world." If correspondents have been guilty of these practices in Afghanistan, knowing the watchfulness of the Russians on the frontier, there would seem to be cause for prohibiting them from following the army now preparing for its march on Cabul.

METLAKATLAH.

The Seattle Intelligencer declines to publish a letter signed "W. G. C. L.," which purports to have been written from Skeena River, in this Province, and attacks the Metlakatlah Mission of Mr. DUNCAN by asserting that the whole establishment is—well, not what it is represented to be, by a long way. Our Seattle contemporary has exhibited commendable sagacity in refusing to publish the communication, which attacks one of the most successful and useful missionary movements in the world. To the unwearying zeal, honesty of purpose and high moral and Christian aims of the gentleman who has devoted his life to the enlightenment of the savages of the Northwest Coast, scores of witnesses of high respectability and of unimpeachable veracity daily bear willing testimony. The work that has been accomplished at Metlakatlah by Mr. DUNCAN is marvelous. He has practically redeemed a people from barbarism, and moulded them into useful and God-fearing citizens. Once, without due consideration, we admitted a letter to these columns that assailed the mission and its founder; and, in the light of knowledge subsequently obtained, we have ever regretted our hasty action.

THE SITUATION IN IRELAND

The London Times, on the disorganizing effects of PARNELL'S policy, says it would become really formidable only if it should extend all over Ireland. The Pall Mall Gazette concedes that the complaints of Irish tenant farmers are mostly genuine. If the general refusal to pay rent is followed by wholesale eviction, this, again, will almost certainly be followed by a series of agrarian murders, and unless the Irish executive is prepared to support the landlords by measures amounting to little less than military occupation, a large part of the country landlords will have to choose between virtually conceding the tenant's claim to fixity of tenure and giving the signal for an outbreak of something hardly distinguishable from civil war. The anti-rent agitation is only one among other symptoms of the general unrest of Ireland.

THE AUSTRO-GERMAN ALLIANCE.

Among the provisions of the new Austro-German alliance completed in the conference between Prince BISMARCK and Count ANDRASSY are the lowering of the railway rates and duties on merchandise passing between the two countries. These arrangements will go into effect on January 1st. The commercial side of the new alliance, which is all that has so far been authoritatively made public, is regarded with intense interest in St. Petersburg, as being the only outward and visible sign of a military and political combination of a character menacing to Russian designs on the map of Europe. The action of Prince Bismarck is commented upon in all circles in Berlin as being a bold and necessary check to the unbridled ambition of Russian diplomats. The London Daily News of the 23rd ult. stated that BISMARCK has proposed a plan for general disarmanent.

INDIA.

Sir Frederick Roberts telegraphs from Charasiab on the 6th inst. that the Afghans advanced from Cabul in force. There was heavy fighting all the day. The Afghan position was carried and 12 guns captured. The British loss was about 80 killed and wounded.

IRELAND.

In consequence of disturbances by roving bands of Ribbonmen the Government has ordered two squadrons of dragoons and a company of infantry to be stationed at Balleuroba and Castlebar.

CANADA.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A boiler explosion in the dye works at Halifax this morning killed five persons. These have been recovered, but it is believed that others are dead in the ruins.

TEXAS.

Two hundred and sixty-seven farmers and their families left Liverpool to-day for Texas.

SOUTH AMERICA.

The Chilian and Peruvian fleets have had an engagement off Meglillones. The Peruvian ram Huascar was captured.

UNITED STATES.

ALBION, Mich., Oct. 9.—A large balloon passed over this city at 9 this forenoon going southwest rapidly at a great height. To all appearances a car was attached.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The 18-year old boy Murphy maintains his lead in the pedestrian contest for the O'Leary belt.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—The suspension of the Hamburg House, of Wedstein, is announced. It has involved that of Meyer, of Layos, with liabilities of 600,000 marks. Three Manchester houses are among the creditors.

Advices from Vienna announce the suspension of Child & Co., a large firm of drapers; liabilities, 500,000 florins. Several Paris and Lyons houses are among the creditors.

Siebed & Jerabek, cotton merchants of Vienna, have failed; liabilities, 200,000 florins. This failure affects parties in Manchester and Liverpool.

MANCHESTER, Sept. 30. — In regard to the causes of the depression in trade, it is stated that during the past fortnight a large firm of agents in Lancashire have taken more orders for American cloth for India than they have in the same period received in connection with all English firms which they commercially represent. Some cloth is shipped direct from the States, and other orders are sent via Liverpool. Yet the operatives will not believe in foreign competition. In addition to the mills already closed one of the largest, the Preston mill, will be closed in a few days if trade does not mend, and others have announced their intention to do likewise during the next three months.

The Chinese Puzzle.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The Tribune, discussing the Chinese question, says: The nation is under contract that California shall allow Chinese all privileges that English, Irish, French or German immigrants enjoy. A general discussion in Congress at an early day, and under conditions somewhat new, is strongly foreshadowed. The effort made in 1878 resulted in a recommendation that the State Department would procure a modification of the treaty. What attempt or progress has been made in any such endeavor may not be fully known. It is fortunate for the general interest of the whole country that the subject must come before Congress for final decision; for only thus can a due consideration of the advantages obtainable by commerce, which the treaty authorizes, as compared with the inconvenience of the immigration it sanctions, be attained, The trade with China, as well as justice to "John," will doubtless claim a hearing.

CANADA.

Collision on a Railway.

GUELPH, Sept. 26. — Two freight trains on the Grand Trunk Railway collided four miles east of this station. Both engines and twelve cars were wrecked. Eight of the latter, laden with coal oil, were burned. The train hands escaped by jumping but a tramp was jammed between the cars and fatally injured.

FOR THE WINTER.—S. Reid & Co. have received by the Alaska a splendid stock of Men's and Boys' Ulsters, Overcoats, Suits, &c., of the latest styles both in cut and material, which they have marked at exceedingly low figures. *

THE BRITISH COLONIST IS THE ONLY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED IN BRITISH COLUMBIA THAT RECEIVES TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES. ITS VALUE AS A NEWS AND ADVERTISING MEDIUM IS THEREFORE APPARENT.

The Presbytery.

The Presbytery of British Columbia in connection with the Church of Scotland met in St. Andrew's Church here on the evening of Wednesday last, and after an able and appropriate sermon from the moderator the Rev. Mr. Clyde of Nanaimo was duly constituted and proceeded to the discharge of business.

All the ministers of the Presbytery were present and the following elders, viz.: The Hon. J. Robson, New Westminster; R. Gibson, Nanaimo; M. Piercy, Comox, and J. Finlayson, Victoria.

Much of the business before the Presbytery was of a routine character, but highly important in carrying forward the work of the church. Much to the regret of his brethren and of all who know him Mr. Murray tendered his resignation of his charge in Nicola Valley and the surrounding districts, being about to leave for an important charge in the east, and the Presbytery put upon record their sense of his services to the church in British Columbia, their regret in parting with him and their best wishes for his future success and his own happiness and that of his family. The Presbytery then proceeded to make arrangements for filling up the vacancy caused by Mr. Murray's removal and expressed the belief that a suitable clergyman to supply the place would be secured at an early day. The matter of forming a Home Mission Board was brought before the court and a committee appointed to convene a meeting of the friends of the church for that purpose as soon as expedient. After transacting all the business before the court the Presbytery adjourned to meet again in St. Andrew's Church, New Westminster, on the 2nd Tuesday of April, 1880.

Exports for the Last Quarter.

Following is a statement of exports from the Province to all parts for the quarter ending September 30th, 1879:

THE MINES.
Coal to the United States, 51,018 tons	$178,563
do Sandwich Islands, 1390 tons	6,950
Gold in dust and Bars	360,528
Total	$546,041
THE FISHERIES.
Canned Salmon to the U. K., 846,672lbs	$ 76,902
do to British Africa, 4500lbs	450
do to United States, 115,200lbs	10,080
	$ 87,432
Pickled Salmon to U. K., 211 barrels	2,058
Other Fish, 20 barrels	172
Total	$ 89,662
THE FOREST.
Laths, Planks and Boards, 7,346,841 feet	$ 75,065
Shingles	266
Total	$ 75,437
ANIMALS AND THEIR PRODUCTS.
Furs	$ 57,902
Hides	9,778
Horns and Hoofs	600
Wool, 19,954lbs	2,497
Total	$ 70,777
RECAPITULATION.
The Mines	$546,041
The Fisheries	89,662
The Forest	75,437
Animals and their produce	70,777
	$781,917
Goods not the produce of the Province	35,117
Grand Total	$817,134

A recapitulation of the exports for the corresponding quarter of 1878 gives the following figures:

The Mines	$ 502,368
The Fisheries	452,485
The Forest	84,324
Animals and their Produce	64,359
Agricultural Produce	595
	$1,104,121
Goods not the produce of the Province	4,026
Grand Total	$1,108,147

From the above it will be seen that there was a decrease in the exports for the quarter just ended, as compared with the exports for the three months ending Sept. 30th, 1878, of $291,113. This may mainly be attributed to the fact that during the September quarter of 1878 the exports from the fisheries represented a total value of $452,485, whereas for the corresponding period of the present year the value of exports from the same source is only $89,662. This deficit, however, will be largely counter-balanced by the shipments of salmon to be made to the United Kingdom and elsewhere during the present month. The produce of the mines for the three months just terminated shows an increase of $43,673—a gratifying result, which is attributable to the increased output of coal, the yield for the 1879 quarter being 54,408 tons valued at $185,513 as compared with 36,075 tons valued at $126,263 for the same period of 1878. There is, however, a decrease of $8,887 in the produce of the forests, the total value of exports for the 1878 quarter being $84,324, against $75,437 for the same quarter of 1879. Under the the head of animals and their products there is an increase of nearly $6,500, and under the head of "goods not the produce of the Province" it will be observed that there is a difference of $31,091, the remarkable increase in favor of the 1879 quarter being accounted for by the shipment of several large quantities of opium valued at $30,000. It is to be regretted that the agricultural exports are very trifling. For the September quarter of 1878 their estimated value was only $595, and for the three months just terminated they have represented a sum too small to be worthy of especial mention.

WHAT FOR?—The Executive Council was in secret conclave yesterday morning and in the afternoon Eli Harrison, jr., was rushing around trying to obtain a passage on any craft going to New Westminster. He appeared to be acting under sealed orders from the Government, and at 4:30 p.m. the steamer Woodside left on a special trip to the Mainland, the only visible passenger on board being Eli Harrison the younger. It is rumored that he has received instructions from the Attorney-General to attend to that functionary's duties on the Mainland whilst he (the Attorney-General) prosecutes—not the alleged murderers of the Poole family—but his canvass for the vacant seat in the Senate.

A Licentious Journalist Thrashed in London.

A London dispatch of the 30th inst. says:—A prodigious sensation was yesterday caused here by the announcement of a fistic encounter between two very well known journalists, one of the parties to the melee being Henry Labouchere, editor and proprietor of a society paper called Truth, and the other Levy Lawson, editor and part proprietor of the popular Daily Telegraph. The latter paper says: Last Monday evening as Edward Lawson was leaving the Beefsteak Club, of which both he and Labouchere are members, Lawson met Labouchere, and, addressing him by the name of Henry Labouchere, said: "You are a liar and a scoundrel. For months past you have maligned my family and myself, and last week, on the day of his funeral, you insulted the memory of my uncle." "Eh! What's this? What's this?" Mr. Labouchere ejaculated. The reply was a blow with the fist, followed by several other blows. Labouchere offered no resistance. After striking the latter with his uncle's cane, Lawson quitted the scene, and Labouchere entering the club, declared that he would have his revenge. The next morning he sent a challenge to Lawson, which was refused in scornful terms, with the remark that he might either have the encounter repeated or go to the nearest Police Court.

Important Sale.

On good authority we announced that Mr. Robert Dunsmuir and Mr. Diggle have purchased the interests of Admiral Farquhar and Capt. Egerton, R. N., in the famous Wellington coal mine, at Departure Bay on this Island, and are now the sole owners of that valuable property. The price paid has not transpired. The deceased was taken ill at the saloon on Thursday morning and after being conveyed to his house became delirious and never rallied. He was a native of Germany, 50 years of age, and came to this country in 1862. The funeral, which takes place this afternoon, will be conducted by the Pioneer Society, of which the deceased was a much respected member. He was a man of many sterling qualities and highly esteemed by those who knew him best.

PERSONAL. — We with pleasure state that our informant with respect to the early departure of J. H. Innes, Esq., from this Province was not well posted. The Admiralty has put forth a new retirement scheme and under it Mr. Innes might, we understand, retire if he pleased; but officers of high worth can by special order remain in active service beyond the prescribed age. We need scarcely say that Mr. Innes is among that class and we trust that he will long remain with us.

MONTREAL, Sept. 25.—Daniel Wilson, coal merchant, has met his death by drowning in the canal.

A young lady, a Canadian, who has been on a visit to a Michigan town, thus writes:—"I was homesick on Sundays. I saw parties moving and some playing croquet and others going home with parcels from the stores. Give me Canada."

A young girl about fourteen years old, named Sophia McLachan, living at Lunenburg, N. S., was accused on Tuesday, last week, of stealing a sum of money, about one hundred dollars, from a lady who employed her as a sewing girl. The accusation evidently preyed upon her mind and health, and she died suddenly on the following Friday. She protested her innocence to the last. At the inquest medical evidence indicated as the cause of death paralysis of the heart, induced probably by strong excitement.

TORONTO, Sept. 26. — Yesterday a most atrocious crime was perpetrated at the village of Lambton Mills, about six miles west of this city, whereby a man named Edward De Curce was murdered by his brother. It seems that the brothers had a dispute about a parcel of land, a lawsuit concerning which was won by Edward. A quarrel took place yesterday, both the brothers being the worse of liquor and the altercation resulted in the shooting of Edward, his brother firing at him two or three times. After the dreadful deed was done the murderer went to the house in which he lived and prepared a dose of poison with the intention of putting an end to his own life also. In this he was frustrated by the arrival of a doctor who succeeded in relieving the desperate man of the potion he had taken. It is reported that the would-be suicide is in a very low state. The property over which the dispute occurred is said to be but a small place situated somewhere on the Humber flats and scarcely worth the life of a good dog far less that of a man.

The full name of Major Cavagnari was Sir Pierre Louis Napoleon Cavagnari. He was of an Italian family, naturalized in England, and was educated at Christ's Hospital, where Charles Lamb and Coleridge received their education.

Rumor has it that Falkland Palace, the old royal residence, is to be purchased for the Queen, to be re-transformed into its ancient state. It was last occupied as a palace by Charles II. of England, in 1651, when on his way to Scone to be crowned King of the Scots.

The owner of a certain dog at Shepherds' Bush, London, was summoned because the animal bit a lad's pantaloons. The evidence of ferocity was going hard against it, when the creature entered the Court. Immediately comprehending the situation, it jumped upon the magistrate's desk, and, in lieu of a speech for the defence, fondled the representative of offended justice; then it settled down quietly upon a chair, where its unimpeachable behaviour during the remainder of the case so wrought in its favour that, in place of being dangerous, it was declared playful, and liberated without even the necessity of finding bail.

At an Exeter foundry a man was engaged at a circular saw, which was running at full speed, when a piece of wood six inches long and half an inch thick was thrown off. Striking him in the face, it made an entry just beneath the left eye, and taking a downward direction passed through the head, so that the point could be felt just beneath the skin at the back of the head. The sufferer was taken to the hospital, the wood withdrawn, and hopes are entertained of his recovery. The physicians, however, speak of it as one of the most remarkable cases on record. They have hopes that, although the wood passed between the eye and the bone immediately beneath, his sight will be preserved.

A new Presbyterian Church was lately opened at a cost of about £10,000 in Armagh, Ireland. Rev. Dr. Donald Fraser, late of Montreal, now of London, preached on the occasion, and mentioned the following anecdote:—After a sermon preached by him at the opening of a church elsewhere a lady of fashionable position in society came to him, "Why should I have two watches while the house of God remains unpaid for?" He replied, "Really, I cannot tell why." She then said, "Well, I give the better watch of the two towards the cost of the church." She did so, and a jeweller paid £52 for it, which was a valuable addition to the fund.

A Paris paper hears from Luchon that the scandalous gaming-tables established on the Spanish frontier, which have proved the ruin of several families, have been suppressed by the vigorous action of the Governor of Lerida. The roulette establishments of Portillon and Pont-du-Roi have disappeared.

The Italian Government have ordered eight more 100-ton guns to be made by Sir W. Armstrong at Elswick. These enormous weapons are to be breech-loaders. They are intended for the armament of the Italia and the Lepanto; the eight 100-ton muzzle-loaders already supplied being destined for the Dandolo and the Duillo.

Prince Leopold is to be created a Duke before the end of the year.

Tennyson's son, Lionel, changes his name and takes the property of his uncle, the late Rev. Charles Tennyson Turner.

From London Truth, Sept. 4: "A fearful accident caused the death last week of the heir of one of the most considerable properties in Cornwall, and the son of Mr. Charles Treffry, of Fowey. He jumped on a tram wagon while in motion, and, falling from the grease-box his legs were caught in the spokes of the wheel, and he was whirled round and fatally injured; indeed, he never regained consciousness, and died in an hour. He was 12 years old, and would, on attaining his majority, have come into possession of the large property which has for many years been held by the Treffry Trustees, 'for an heir who shall be born in the name of Treffry.' The poor boy leaves two brothers, the eldest of whom now stands in his place."

The Veterinary Journal reports the case of the poisoning of Lord William Beresford's horse by tea, which it pronounces "unparalleled in the annals of veterinary or even human toxicology." A staff cook having left some pounds of tea in a sack, a Kaffir groom filled it with corn and serving out the contents to a troop of horses, gave Lord William Beresford's charger the bulk of the tea which was eaten greedily, and produced the most startling results. The animal plunged and kicked and ran backward, at intervals galloping madly around, finally falling into a donga, where it lay dashing its head on the rocks and was dispatched by an assegai thrust through the heart. The post-mortem appearance indicated extreme cerebal congestion."

The Chicago Tribune has adopted the "fonetic" mode of spelling to some extent. Its "program" contains "demagog," "pedagog," "decalog," and "synagog"; "cigaret," "coquet," and "etiquet" figure in its "catalog" of abbreviated words, and it makes "favorits" of "infinit," "hypocrits," "exquisits," and "filosofers." "Fantoms" and "gosts" are a little comic in its "colums," and altogether the new mode of spelling looks decidedly queer.

A Saratoga letter states that several ladies have appeared at hotels in toilets made from common unbleached muslin, costing six cents a yard. These toilets were very successful, because they had that creamy white color which can not be obtained with dyes.

A PLUCKY GIRL.—A robber found Winnie Roberts, aged 16, alone in a farmhouse at Wadesburg, Mo. He commanded her to give him all the money in the building, but she refused. After searching a little, and finding only $10, he threw her on a bed, drew a pistol, and swore that he would kill her if she did not give the information. She thrust her hand under the pillow, leading him to suppose that she was getting the money, but what she drew out was a revolver, with which she shot him twice.

The Popular Preacher.

It was a worthy pastor,
Who saw with grief and care,
His congregation go to sleep,
Or—which was worse—elsewhere.

He pondered long and deeply,
This wise and pious man,
And at last hit on a simple
And most effectual plan.

Next Sunday, of his sermon
The text when he had said,
He slid adown the pulpit stairs
And stood upon his head.

By thousands flocked the people
That preacher great to hear,
And the trustees raised his salary
To two thousand dollars a year.

Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. *

The Reason Why.

My reason for buying Cooking and other Stoves and Parlor Grates at the Albion Iron Works is because I can purchase them there at prices much less than they can be imported for. The quality of the goods is equal, if not superior, to the imported article, and by buying them I get my money back, if not directly I do so indirectly, because the money I pay for an Albion Stove is kept in the country. Do not let unprincipled dealers sell you the imported article when you can help to save the country by buying Stoves, &c., at the Albion Iron Works, Store street, or of any respectable dealer. Examine for yourself and take no other. *

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

—EFFECTED BY—

California Elastic Truss!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS CO., W. J. Horne Proprietor—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period; and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the case and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on and feel that I am PERFECTLY CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer anyone to me on the subject of its merits I am truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE,
Chief Mail Clerk S. F. Daily Evening Post.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Medical Staff.)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretionsof the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousand of persons testify to its marvellous good effectsand wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—diphtheria, fever, croup, ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa, and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, cancer, toothache, meningitis, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE.— See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.
From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."
Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."
See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always righ to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.
CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.
Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d. and 11s.

Come ye citizens and strangers,
Miners, sailors and Western rangers,
Listen to the truthful story,
Of Frank Campbell of Victoria.
He in truthful words will tell you
Just the goods he has to sell you.
Mind ye now he isn't joking,
If you are fond of chewing and smoking,
Or if you are given to snuffing,
What he keeps does not need puffing.
He has brands will suit you really,
Tobacco users prize them dearly;
From all parts of the "Old Dominion"
He has stock, and his opinion
Is that none can suit you better
They will please you to the letter.
His Cigars, just from 'Havana,'
Smoke in the most lovely manner;
Meerschaum pipes of style and fashion
Just to suit each taste and passion;
And it is in Canada stated,
His Tobaccos are celebrated;
Green Seal, Straight Cut, all go,
Big Lick, Big Cut, Wind Sap, also
All the Fine Cut Brands for chewing
That your teeth will never ruin;
Pipes to suit the inveterate smoker
Cards for playing sinch or poker,
Pipes of briar and stems of cherry
More than any man can carry;
It would take a week to tell you
All the things he has to sell you.
While in town you may be stopping
At the "Adelphi Corner" drop in;
Campbell you'll find at that location
Ready to give you information,
Or to see you well provided,
With what is by all decided,
The smoker's and the chewer's glory,
The best and cheapest in Victoria.

F. CAMPBELL.
